

We signed-up for the Wisconsin no-call list when it was first instituted more than two years ago. Doing so has tremendously enhanced our quality of life by nearly eliminating unwanted nuisance calls. We strongly object to any efforts to weaken the provisions of this well conceived and well executed government initiative.